

I vigorously protest plans to further consolidate the media.
Already I find I must turn ever more frequently to C-span or British/Canadian media to avoid the pabulum dished out by our media in the U.S. More than at any other time I can remember (72 years) we need not consolidation, but proliferation of independent sources.